2023
Exhibit Columbus Activity Guide

9 Side Effects

Molly Hunker and Greg Corso at The Commons

The seats and patterns are both inside and outside.

Grab a partner and fold your activity guide in half along the dotted line. First, you draw half of a sunflower. Then flip the guide over and have your partner draw the other half on the other side

Where do you want to meet friends in the city?

Write here
What is the center of your home?

The dome of InterOculus was inspired by an ice cream cone the designer ate at Zaharako's. Draw your favorite ice cream cone or whatever you think the installation looks like.

2 InterOculus

Practice for Architecture and Urbanism (PAU)
at 4th and Washington Streets

Do you play in public space?

Grid of dots for writing.

Ground Rules

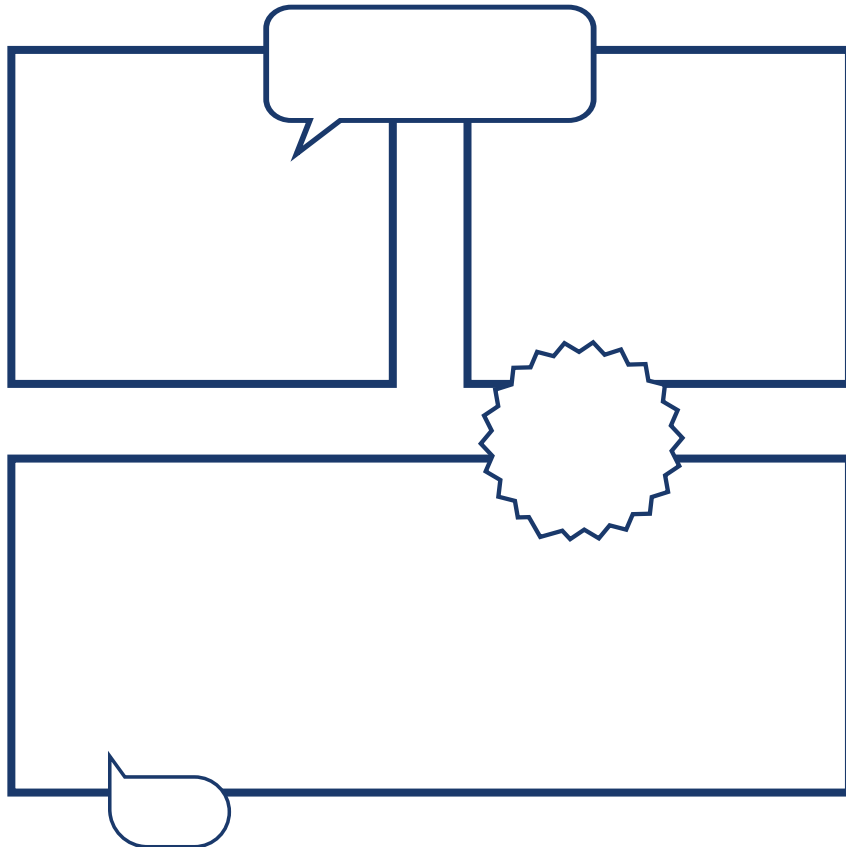

Jessica Colangelo and Charles Sharpless at Cummins Office Building on Fifth Street

Sketch your favorite sandwich here

Ground Rules is a place to play lots of different types of games.

Play a game and write who won here

11 PIPE UP!

Halina Steiner, Tameka Baba, Shelby Doyle, Forbes Lipschitz at Hotel Indigo Columbus Architectural Center

This installation shows how water moves through the landscape.

Use this comic strip to show where your water goes

Where does the water go when you flush the toilet?

Grid of dots for writing.

Esteban Garcia Bravo and Maria Clara Morales at Cummins Parking Garage on Jackson Street

What can you do in this place?

6 PRISMA

A large grid of dots for drawing, consisting of 10 rows and 20 columns.

PRISMA is a tunnel full of colorful lights. Without lifting your pencil from the paper, use a single line to draw the installation

12 街 Machi

High School Design Team
at Cummins Parking Garage
on Washington Street

Machi is full of seats, shade,
and places for art.

Draw some art pieces you want to see displayed in Machi

What part of downtown do you want to own?

Public by Design

Signals in Downtown Columbus

The signs guiding you around rely on 4 key parts: landmarks, nodes, neighborhoods, and pathways.

Match the word to its meaning and the picture...

landmarks

nodes

neighborhoods

pathways

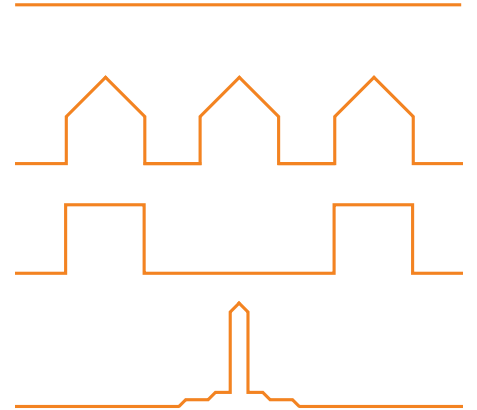

center points

courses, routes, or ways

prominent objects that serve as guides areas around or near some place or thing

How do you find your favorite place?

A family-friendly event for youth of all ages to explore the Exhibition! Together with the Council for Youth Development, Bartholomew County Public Library, IU Architecture School, High School Design Team and STEM Students.
